

ILLINOIS RAILWAY MUSEUM

Union, Illinois

Chicago Transit Authority streamlined PCC streetcar 4391 was built in 1948 by the St. Louis Car Company. Chicago's post-war PCC fleet numbered 600 units. Parts from these cars were used to build the 6000-class L-Subway cars in the 1950's. The last streetcar operated in Chicago on June 21, 1958.

Photo by William Wulfert

Pub. by John Stern, P. O. Box 586, New York, N.Y. 10008

32924-D

post card

dp

MADE BY DEXTER PRESS
WEST NYACK, NEW YORK